Noontime Concert - Elderly Brothers Trio

Join us for a free concert from the Elderly Brothers Trio. Bryan, Mike and Tom have a passion for singing and strumming folk music of the sixties and seventies, including songs made popular by The Kingston Trio; Peter, Paul and Mary; and Gordon Lightfoot. Bring your lunch and a friend and enjoy the show! Drinks and snacks will also be available for purchase from Anastasia & Katie’s Coffee and Cafe stand in the atrium.

The Noontime Concert Series is generously supported by the Livonia Arts Commission.

Date: Thursday, November 21, 2024
 Time: 12:15pm - 1:00pm
 Location: Atrium
 Branch: Bennett Civic Center Library

Brian Carpenter

"The Art of Aging"

Brian Carpenter is a Professor of Psychological and Brain Sciences at the Harvey A. Friedman Center for Aging at Washington University in St. Louis. His projects aim to improve the quality of life for older adults.

He believes that the way you think about life impacts health, rate of aging and how long we live. He will break down the science of thought and tell us how mindset exerts an influence on physical health. We will leave the lecture with specific strategies that will improve the quality and length of our lives.

Held at the St. Mary's Cultural Center, 18100 Merriman Road, Livonia

10:30 a.m.—1:30 p.m. Doors open at 10:00 a.m.

Only Ticket Holders will be admitted

Andre Mehmani, piano

November 13

SHERMAN CONCERT

Andre Mehmani embodies the creative soul of Brazil. His music has no boundaries or adjectives. So much so that it may encapsulate an unheard harmonic evolution that travels many centuries in an arrangement of an aria from Monteverdi to an improvisation that is the best of the best in the realm of jazz and popular instrumental music. He plays a harpsichord with the same ease with which he writes for an orchestra, seeming to increase the scope of his instrumental writing as the decades of life progress.

Made possible by a grant from the Schoolcraft College Foundation.
